NT-Personalities: Strategic Thinker.

NT Core Personalities at a Glance

NTs at Work

NT personalities have a strong tendency to analyze, love theoretical questions and like to work out possible solutions and ideas. They quickly feel bored by routine work and try to avoid it. Since they have a strong need for autonomy and set high standards for their work results, they always want to be challenged.

NT as a Role Model

NT role models have clear visions that they pursue with self-confidence and competence. Their quality standards are high and their strategies very sophisticated. Their pragmatic approach to problems and their determination make them strong leaders. The NT leadership style is dominant, goal-oriented and focused on efficiency.
